NEWS ABOUT TOWN.

The Court-Martial Still in Progress.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Ladies Organize to Aid in Making a Great Exhibit—Other Items of Interest.

The court-martial on the case of Col. W. H. H. Russell continued its session through the day and evening yesterday. The prosecution closed what appears to the spectators to be a very strong case, and the defense put on several witnesses.

At the morning session Lieutenant McPherson's cross-examination was completed, and Brigadier-General Johnson took the stand and testified with regard to an order for an inspection which had not been obeyed by Colonel Russell. Lieutenant Worth and Captain H. Z. Osborne gave testimony on various points connected with Colonel Russell's peculiar system of keeping accounts, and Sergeant Last explained how the affairs of the Eagle Corps were conducted.

John L. Hickman, expert accountant, was called to testify to the showing made by the books in which Colonel Russell kept the accounts of the Eagle Corps. He testified that he found a discrepancy of over $5,000 between the accounts and the vouchers. According to Mr. Hickman's calculation the finances of the Eagle Corps were kept in a very unbusiness-like sort of style.

W. C. Stone, the financial secretary of the Eagle Corps, was down on the list of the defendant's witnesses, but he was summoned by the prosecution and ordered to produce and explain all his books and the entries therein. The principal book was one in which the accounts ran from November, 1886, to May, 1889. The witness would not swear that it had been in his possession prior to 1889. It bore pretty good external evidence of having all been written at about the same time. The ink in which the 1886 entries were made was just as clear as that of the entries of 1889. The prosecution will endeavor to show that the accounts were cooked up for the purpose of hiding irregularities in Colonel Russell's financial affairs.

In the evening session Colonel Russell was placed on the stand as the first witness for the defense. He explained the way in which he kept his books. He went over the items of expense for which there were no receipts or vouchers and told what the outlay was for. The court finally adjourned at about 10 o'clock, and will convene again this morning at 9, when the cross-examination of Colonel Russell will begin.

THE LADIES.

They Organize and Will Decorate the Permanent Exhibit.

Notwithstanding the rain yesterday afternoon quite a number of ladies who are interested in the material advancement of this city met at the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of forming a ladies' annex.

Mrs. Anne Hobbs was made president and Mrs. Dr. Wilder secretary.

Mrs. Frances M. Bagley, of the San Diego annex, made an interesting exposition of the workings of her home organization, and portrayed the good the ladies of that city had done and the benefit they had been to the Chamber of Commerce. She said that the ladies there had at first organized a "Flower Day Society," the object of which was to keep fresh flowers constantly in the permanent exhibit. There were only fourteen ladies present at the first meeting. From this small start had sprung a society numbering over 700, and which had under way a city park, a free market house, a watch factory and many other things, not talked of but actually in course of construction. With these weighty matters on their minds the ladies did not lose sight of their original design, but still kept the permanent exhibit filled with fresh flowers and other beautiful things, entertained visitors at the chamber and in every way aided that organization.

The ladies present therefore determined to organize at once, which was done by electing the following officers: President, Mrs. Anna Hobbs; vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Brown; secretary, Mrs. Dr. Wilder; assistant secretary, Miss Louise Jones; corresponding secretary, Mrs. McComas; treasurer, Mrs. D. E. Russell. It was decided to decorate the permanent exhibit of the Chamber of Commerce for the opening Saturday night, and the following resolution was adopted: "That the ladies and citizens generally be and they are requested to donate to the 'Ladies' Annex,' for the purpose of decorating the permanent exhibit and rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, as many cut flowers, evergreens and potted plants as they can spare, and that persons having such articles to donate be requested to send the same to the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce by 9 o'clock Saturday morning."

A lavender badge was adopted, and Miss Jones, Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Rickey were appointed a committee to procure such badges.

Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, was selected as the regular meeting day.

Mrs. Wilder, Mrs. Kirkbride and Miss Fish were appointed a committee on membership.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Miss Bagley, and the ladies adjourned to Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, at which time they will meet at the Chamber of Commerce to decorate with flowers the permanent exhibit.

Among the ladies present were the following: Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. D. E. Russell, Miss M. S. Fish, Mrs. S. A. Rickey, Mrs. Alice McComas, Mrs. R. E. Allen, Miss Mary L. Crawford, Mrs. Charles A. McDonnell, Mrs. B. R. Kirkbride, Miss Louise Jones, Mrs. Dr. Wilder, Miss Phipps and Mrs. Anna Hobbs.

Obstructing the Street.

Seven prominent fruit dealers were arrested for the second time yesterday morning on charges of having obstructed the public sidewalks in front of their stores by placing boxes of fruit, exhibiting their wares, on stands against the walls of their buildings, contrary to the sidewalk ordinance. They were Messrs. J. A. Sherman, J. J. Rodriguez, N. Weill, J. B. Althouse, N. Chronis, N. Mercadante, and Eugene Germain. All were taken before Justice Lockwood for arraignment, and their cases set for trial at 9:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning, April 1st, until which time they were released upon their own recognizance. N. Mercadante subsequently reappeared, and upon entering his plea of guilty, was fined $3.

THE RAILROADS.

Rumors About the Los Angeles and Pacific.

The Los Angeles and Pacific road is occupying the attention of the circulators of railroad rumors in these days, and stories of sales and a general collapse alternate from time to time. A notice has been published for some time of a sale of stock on which the assessment is delinquent, to come off today. One of the stockholders whose stock is advertised, was seen yesterday by a reporter of this paper. He said: "I believe that it is a scheme on the part of a ring of the principal stockholders to squeeze out the smaller holders. They declare an assessment and when it is not paid, put up the stock and get it bid in at a low figure to them. There is some kind of a sale of the road in their plans. I heard that the Carter Brothers, car manufacturers of San Francisco, who recently took back the rolling stock of the road, wrote to a correspondent in this city that the Denver and Rio Grande had bought the road. If that is true then the ring want to get as much as possible of the proceeds of the sale for themselves, and that is why they are crowding us out."

No definite information could be obtained about the letter from the Carter Brothers. The reporter informed Herman Silver, the receiver of the road, of the story and he scouted it as impossible. "As the representative of the court," said he, "I would know if any such movement was in progress, and I know positively that it is not. An assessment was declared to pay the debts of the company, and according to the laws of the State if this is not paid by the stockholders their stock is put up at auction. The talk about 'rings' and 'squeezing out' seems to me absurd. I do not know that there are any negotiations in progress for a sale of the road."

The Denver and Rio Grande story seemed to meet with no credence anywhere among those informed about the road. S. W. Luitweiler, vice-president of the road, said that the road was in a better shape at present than it had been at any time since its embarrassment began. The claims of most of the creditors had been satisfactorily arranged. The cars had been returned to the company which owned them, but others more desirable for the use of the road could be secured when they were needed. The stories about the taking up of the ties and rails and of the sale of the road to various people were all without foundation.

Messrs. Wade and Hynes of the Santa Fe, will probably return from Colorado today.

C. S. Mellon the general traffic manager of the Union Pacific, who has been representing his line at the Transcontinental Association, received word that his wife was seriously ill in San Francisco and went north yesterday on a special train provided for him by the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific.

A Santa Fe excursion will leave for the East today.

Clarence Clark of the Norfolk and Western Railway, is at the Raymond.

H. H. Houston, a director of the Pennsylvania railroad, arrived in the city day before yesterday and departed yesterday in his special car for San Diego.

"RICHARD III."

Frederick Warde's Production at the Grand Opera House.

Yesterday afternoon Frederick Warde, assisted by his thoroughly well-selected company, produced Virginius before a very fair audience for so wet a day. In the evening the play was Richard III, and the production was very highly wrought. The costuming is on a magnificent scale, but it was carried to a point a little too far, for even "Richard" was clad in a fine suit of mail, spic and span new, whereas that leader of a most forlorn hope, when he came to the throne as Richard III was a beggar.

Mr. Warde's "Richard III" is so well known to the play-goers of the city that analysis were superfluous. He has improved in much of the declamation end of the business since here, and the recognition his art won last night from a most densely crowded, intelligent and enthusiastic house must have been flattering to the recipient. Mr. Warde is a great favorite with Los Angeles people, who will be glad to see him return here soon.

"A Hole in the Ground."

Hoyt's Hole in the Ground will commence a three nights' engagement at the Grand opera house this evening, giving during their engagement a Saturday matinee. The attraction is said to be extremely fine, and the company first-class in every respect.

Many of the original cast are still with the company. Judging from the advance sales the attendance will be very large.

Minor Notes from the Courts.

The case of Benoir Renault, fully reported in the HERALD yesterday, was argued and taken under advisement by Judge McKinley yesterday. Pending the decision the prisoner was remanded.

Chas. Seggilio, a native of Italy, was made a citizen.

The San Pedro sailors who kidnaped the men from the bark Sundborg were before Department 6 on a writ of habeas corpus. A decision had not been reached when the court adjourned.

D. S. A. Hazen was rearrested yesterday and charged with being insane.

C. F. Kuhl secured a divorce from his wife, Lizzie D. Kuhl, Judge McKinley granting the decree. He alleges that his wife goes away from her home to dances such as she should not attend. Sometimes she has stayed out to these "hipsie-saws" until the cocks crew in the morning. The children were neglected and the husband's rights ignored. They are from Portland, Oregon, where they were married in 1884.

The Permanent Exhibit.

The persons interested in the different locality exhibits at the Chamber of Commerce, are requested to come in and put their displays in shape at once.

LAUTERIO'S STORY.

He is on Cross-Examination for Nearly Two Days.

WHO STOLE THE COUNTY FUNDS?

The Ex-Deputy Being Probed to Clear His Chief of the Charge of Crime in Office.

In the case of the People against A. A. Montaño, ex-County Auditor, for issuing fraudulent warrants, his deputy, Frank Lauterio, who is the prosecuting witness, was kept on the stand all day yesterday, after being on nearly all the previous day. The greater part of the time the witness has been under a rigid cross-examination at the hands of Hon. S. M. White.

Taking the case up where it was dropped on Tuesday evening, the investigation thus went on:

Q.—Do you remember when the Republican County Convention was held in 1888?

A.—I think it was in the latter part of June. I cannot state whether it was two weeks or three weeks before the convention was held when this warrant was drawn. By my own recollection I cannot state whether it was in June or not. I base my opinion on the examination of the Treasurer's reports and of the warrant books in the office of the Auditor. I was not keeping the books at that time. When I had time I would assist Montaño.

Q.—What other work did you do in the office?

A.—All that was required of me.

Q.—What do you mean by keeping books to some extent?

A.—Well, by assisting in keeping what is called the fund book. I think the book will show for itself.

The witness was then shown the fund book of 1888, and requested to examine the handwriting on page 3. After looking at it for a moment he replied that a portion of it was in Montaño's and a portion his.

Mr. White then offered the book in evidence, to which the State objected.

The defense stated that they desired to introduce the above for the purpose of rebuttal, and would show that the witness not only knew about the warrant in question, but that he had himself checked off the same from the Treasurer's return checks or receipts.

Mr. White then read from page 3 an entry of a gross amount made on June 30, 1888, and asked in whose handwriting it was.

A.—It is in my handwriting. I made the entry from a statement of the County Treasurer, supposing it to be correct. The Treasurer made these reports every month. The warrants were returned with the statements.

Q.—What is that document you hold in your hand?

A.—It is the Treasurer's report of June, 1888. I probably made all the entries in the book known as the "Auditor's funds" in the month of June, 1888. I was in the Auditor's office during all the year 1888, to the best of my recollection.

Q.—Whose handwriting is this in? showing witness a certain warrant.

A.—I decline to answer.

Q.—Why?

The State objected to the question, and Mr. White again stated that he held in his hand ten other warrants which had been illegally drawn by the witness, and that he could prove that if any fraud had been perpetrated it had been done by this witness.

The court sustained the objection.

Witness was then shown another written document, and asked in whose handwriting it was.

A.—I decline to answer.

Q.—Why?

A.—It would tend to criminate myself and others, some of your clients.

Q.—You need not fear for my clients. Would it tend to convict you of a felony?

A.—I don't know how far it would injure me. It would tend to criminate me and others.

Q.—When did you leave the Auditor's office?

A.—In June, 1889.

Q.—Are you acquainted with General E. Bouton?

A.—Yes, sir; I had a conversation with him about the time the Board of Supervisors made a demand upon Montaño to straighten up the shortage mentioned. It was at the corner of Spring and Market streets. There was no one present but ourselves. There was some talk about a shortage of $3,840.

Q.—Did you in that conversation tell General Bouton substantially that Montaño knew nothing about the warrant involved in this case?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—When did you first have a conversation with Mr. Kelly about this case?

A.—It was when I was in the county jail. I don't remember how many conversations I had with him in regard to this case when I was in the county jail. I remember when he came to the jail with Justice Savage. He requested me to sign a complaint against Montaño at the time.

Q.—Did you not hesitate a long time before signing it? Did you not decline to sign it?

A.—No, I did not at that time. I had made up my mind what to do. I did decline to sign it at one time. Mr. Kelly told me to do as I pleased. The complaint was not brought to me when I hesitated. I hesitated at first because Montaño was a good friend of mine. Mr. Kelly merely said to me that there were some cases still pending against me. I said to him that I expected that he would do his duty by me and others; that I had come here to do what was right.

Q.—Where did you come from?

A.—The mountains.

Q.—Who did you come with?

A.—With the Sheriff of San Bernardino county.

Q.—Did you have any conversation with Mr. Kelly apart from Mr. Savage?

A.—I do not remember.

Q.—About when were you released from jail?

A.—In November last year.

Q.—Do you remember having a conversation with Mr. Lopez in the Sheriff's office, when Mr. Appel was present, soon after leaving the county jail?

A.—I did not.

Q.—Did you not say at that time that the defendant ought to join hands with you and down the Jews?

A.—I may have said it. I had several conversations with Mr. Appel which I expect will be brought out here.

Q.—When did you sign the complaint?

A.—I signed the complaint in jail in the month of August, 1889. I do not know how long I had been there.

Q.—Are there not criminal proceedings pending against you?

A.—Yes, there are criminal proceedings pending against me in the Superior Court of this county. [Witness shown four indictments.] I believe these are the cases pending against me. These indictments were filed June 14 and 28, 1889. I have had a conversation with the District Attorney since I left the county jail. It was in his office. I never had an agreement with Mr. Kelly about the reduction of bail. I asked him, inasmuch as others were getting their bails reduced, if mine could not be reduced. I left the matter with my attorney and Mr. Kelly. I was not present in court when my bail was reduced.

Q.—Have you conversed with any one about the case?

A.—I never had any conversation in regard to this case with Mr. Hardesty in the District Attorney's office. I have had three conversations with Mr. McComas in regard to this case. One conversation was not taken down by a shorthand reporter. I made a statement before leaving the mountains, reduced to writing, which is in the hands of the District Attorney, but I decline to give it here.

Mr. Kelly—I have that statement locked up in my safe.

Mr. White—We would like to have that statement.

Mr. Kelly—I will get it for you when you want it.

Witness—I never made a statement either in the county jail or any other place which was taken down by a lady employed in the District Attorney's office relative to what I should testify to.

At this point Mr. White asked that Mr. Kelly produce the statement referred to above.

Mr. Kelly stated to the court that the statement did not pertain to the case at issue, but that he would submit it to the court to decide. This appeared to be satisfactory.

Q.—Has not the District Attorney agreed with you to continue these cases?

A.—C. C. Stephens is my attorney, and I do not know upon what grounds they were continued, so far as I am concerned there had been no agreements entered into.

Q.—Did you not tell Mr. Appel that you were glad that you had attended the trial of Carl Browne, and had listened to the testimony of H. H. Boyce, for by doing so you had learned how to conduct yourself upon the witness stand, that Boyce only gave his impressions.

A.—If he says so I guess it must be so.

Q.—Had you a conversation with Mr. Appel in 1889, just after the grand jury was impaneled, as to this warrant for $3,800?

A.—I do not remember.

Q.—Did you tell Appel the warrant was gone?

A.—I may have done so.

Q.—Did you not tell him that warrant had been destroyed?

A.—I never said so.

Q.—Did you then say you had an idea who drew that warrant?

A.—I never said so.

Q.—Do you remember that Appel said "I do too," and you asked him "who?" and he said "tell me first, so that I can see if we agree on the same person?"

A.—That must all be in his mind. I do not remember it.

Q.—Did you not say it was Aaron Smith?

A.—I did not.

Q.—Do you remember asking Appel if he would not speak to the supervisors to put Smith out of the Auditor's office, because he was injuring you?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you remember when Montaño was in jail?

A.—I remember he was in jail twice.

Q.—Do you remember the second time he was in jail, one Sunday afternoon, when you were sitting there reading a paper, when Montaño and Mrs. Montaño, Mr. Appel and Mr. Seville were there, when Appel went over to get some water you followed him and slipped a piece of paper torn off from the margin of the journal you were reading, into Appel's hand?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Do you remember what was written on that?

A.—No sir.

This slip of paper was shown the witness, and he identified it. Mr. White sought to put it in evidence, but the court would not allow it. It transpired that the writing was of such a nature as to tend to lay the fraudulent warrants to Aaron Smith. It asked the question, "Does the Auditor allow Aaron Smith to sign his name to warrants?"

In answer to some pointed questions as to conversations with Mr. Appel, the witness said he desired to make a general statement, which was to this effect: All this time Appel has been following me around. He has pretended to be my friend; he has tried to induce me to talk about this case, and has asked me to go to his office to be interviewed. I have told him I had no objections to holding an interview with him, but that it must be in the presence of others. In all these conversations pointed at by these questions the talking was by him, and I said very little. I may have said to him that I had no ill will towards Montaño, and that I was his friend. I probably did say that.

Q.—Did you in June, 1888, in front of Fred Linde's place, in Temple block, meet Appel and ask him how to spell Mr. Delereaux's name?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you not remember, after the death of Charles Dominguez, meeting Mr. Appel, when he asked you if you had learned how to spell the name?

A.—I do not.

Q.—Did you know Mr. Delereaux?

A.—Yes. I had some business with him.

Q.—Did you introduce him to Montaño?

A.—I did not need to do so. Mr. Montano knew him.

Q.—Did you introduce him to Mr. Valencia when you did some business about public lands?

A.—I may have done so.

Q.—Do you know Jose Sanchez?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Was he at your house when you were sick?

A.—Yes; he came there last January or February when I was sick.

Q.—Did you converse about this case, and say that you were a friend of Montaño and the best witness he had?

A.—I did not converse with him about this case, nor say I was the best witness Montaño had.

Q.—Do you know Col. Banbury, the County Treasurer?

A.—Yes, I do.

Q.—Did you in January, 1889, tell him that he ought to appoint Montaño his deputy, that he was an honest man and a good book-keeper, and that the appointment would please the Spanish people?

A.—I may have said that to him.

After some more questioning in the same direction, Lauterio was turned over to the District Attorney again, and soon the court adjourned.

You are nervous and dyspepsic, your appetite flags, your slumber is broken or disturbed by uneasy dreams, or you court the sleepy god in vain. What shall you do? Try an alcoholic excitant to stimulate appetite, deaden the nerves at bed time with a narcodic? Neither of these. Try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It will, believe us, be more than a trial. You will continue to use this justly renowned nerve invigorant and stomachic. It is in the exigency supposed just what is wanted. It is a healthful stimulus to appetite and digestion, does not excite, but quiets the brain and nerves, is an excellent diuretic and a speedy reformer of a disordered condition of the liver and bowels. It counteracts a tendency to rheumatism, nullifies the prostrating effects of overwork, mitigates the infirmities of age, and hastens convalescence. Persons exposed to rough weather should use it as a preventive, as should also tired students and business men.

NEW ZEALAND

INSURANCE CO.

ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING.

DIVIDEND OF TWELVE AND A HALF PER CENT.

The shareholders of the New Zealand Insurance Company held their ordinary general meeting at their offices, Queen street, yesterday. Dr. J. L. Campbell, Chairman of the Board of Directors, presided.

REPORT AND BALANCE SHEET.

Mr. G. P. Pierce, General Manager, read the following report and statement of accounts:

The directors have the pleasure of submitting to the shareholders a report of the business of the company for the year ending 30th November, 1889.

The premiums, after deducting returns and reinsurances, amount to £289,893 10s 3d, being an increase of £20,447 16s 4d for the year.

After providing for all ascertained losses, and paying an interim dividend of 2s 6d per share in July last, there remains a sum of £22,975 13s 11d available for division, which your directors recommend should be appropriated as follows:

To Reserved Fund	£5,000	0s 0d
Payment of a dividend at the rate of 12½ per cent. per annum	12,500	0 0
Balance carried forward	5,475	13 11

The reserve and reinsurance funds will then amount to £240,000.

Your directors have gone carefully over the securities with the auditors, estimating present values and making reductions where such have been deemed necessary. Acting on the suggestion of the auditors, your board have had certified valuations made of all the freehold properties belonging or mortgaged to the company, by experienced experts. The result has been most satisfactory, showing that our investments could be valued at a considerably enhanced amount, much in excess of the valuation at present standing in our books.

Messrs. J. McCosh Clark, and J. L. Wilson retire from the directory, as provided for by the Articles of Association, but are eligible for re-election.

Messrs. Boardman and Waymouth again offer their services as auditors.

The dividend will be payable at the head office tomorrow, and at the branches and agencies on receipt of advice.

For the Board of Directors,

J. LOGAN CAMPBELL, Chairman.

THE COLUMBIAN FAIR.

What Congress is Asked to Do in the Matter.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Chicago Commended for Its Enterprise, Intelligence and Liberality.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Chandler presented in the House today the report of the special committee on the World's Fair. It is in part as follows:

Under instruction given by the action of the House the committee inserted Chicago in the bill as the place of holding the fair in 1892, and consulted with representatives of that city for the purpose of perfecting and improving it, making such amendments as were deemed necessary. The bill submitted differs in some essential features from the bill reported originally by the committee and recommended.

In the second section the representation of the Territories and the District of Columbia has been increased from one to two commissioners from each, and provision is also made for the appointment of eight commissioners at large. The commission is designated the "World's Columbian Commission."

The third section dispenses with the United States corporation which it was proposed to create by Congress. It also stipulates that commissioners be appointed from each State and Territory and the District of Columbia, together with eight commissioners to be appointed at large. The commission, acting independently of the corporation and without power to incur any obligations, is instructed by this act to accept the buildings only when they shall be deemed by said commission to be adequate for the purpose for which they are intended.

In the original bill the eleventh section stated that not less than 10 per centum of the capital stock should be actually paid in cash before the commission should do any corporate act, other than those necessary to its organization. The bill now reported is still more conservative in protecting the Government's interests so far as its connection is concerned, and insuring the financial success of the fair beyond a reasonable contingency, by providing that the commissioners shall not only be satisfied that an actual bona fide subscription to the capital stock of at least $5,000,000 has been made, of which not less than $500,000 has been paid in, but also declares that a further sum of $5,000,000, making 10,000,000 in all, shall be provided by the corporation in ample time, or as needed for the successful prosecution of the work.

The committee has given careful consideration to the statements of representatives of the finance committee of Chicago as to subscriptions to the stock of $5,000,000, and believes the subscriptions will be paid. While it is the judgment of the committee that Chicago will meet the obligations and promises of her representatives, it would call attention to the fact that the judgment of this committee is not taken alone, but the commission on the spot in Chicago will have a more favorable opportunity to satisfy themselves.

The representatives of Chicago who appeared before the committee were ready to meet every requirement indicated by the bill previously considered or under discussion while the location was pending, and the committee desires to recognize the fact that it is due to Chicago that it be assured by the action of the House that the fair is to be held in Chicago, without further delay, as the business arrangements connected with the provisions of this act can be better adjusted when they are assured of the action of Congress. The committee claim that the Government does not assume any risk, but is asked to enact such legislation as will demonstrate that it is in sympathy with and desires to encourage the patriotic efforts of the citizens of Chicago in a great national and international exposition that will mark this important epoch in the history of the world, and commemorate the life and services of Columbus in a manner worthy the continent which he discovered.

Section 6 defines the duties of the commission and commissioners, and gives them the necessary power to allot space for exhibitors, classify the exhibits, determine the plan and scope of the exposition, appoint judges and examiners, award premiums and have general charge of the intercourse with the exhibitors and representatives of foreign nations.

Section 8 provides for the dedication of the World's Columbian Exposition on the 30th of April, 1892. Upon the question of the time for holding the exposition there was a difference of opinion among the members of the committee.

The cost of the Government buildings is limited to $400,000, and appropriations are made for the Government's expenses. The expenses of the Government after 1891, for all purposes connected with the exposition, are limited to the sum of $1,500,000. All the expenses of the Government are subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

In submitting the letter of Chairman Gage, of the finance committee of Chicago, the House committee calls attention to the fact that the city of Chicago and the State of Illinois have for an extended period indicated the desire that Chicago should be selected as the site for the fair. Investigation made by their committee at Paris, enables Chicago more intelligently to comprehend the magnitude of the undertaking, its cost, scope and requirements for the successful conduct of it, and to commence active preparations more promptly than could be imaginable, except for their enterprise and forethought.

The committee calls attention to the fact that the citizens of Chicago offer a larger and more generous contribution to the nation than ever proffered by private citizens before, and larger than any offered by any foreign government or city in the great international expositions previously held. In the financial plan of the Paris Exposition, which is now claimed to have been the most successful in the world, it was agreed that the subscriptions should aggregate $8,600,000, while Chicago guarantees that to satisfy the commission it will provide, without the aid of the National Government, the sum of $10,000,000, and with the site, also to be provided by Chicago, this is ample for all purposes for a fair in this country.

In addition to the buildings erected by the Government and the City of Chicago for the exposition, we may reasonably anticipate that many states of the Union, the Dominion of Canada, Mexico, the Central and South American republics and the Governments of Europe will erect commodious buildings for their own exhibits. About fifty countries were represented at the Paris Exposition, and we may confidently expect increased interest and a larger representation in the Columbian Exposition.

The committee calls attention to the interesting and important communications and estimates appended hereto, received from the different departments and bureaus of the Government, indicating their great interest in the exposition, and it is most important that they should have an opportunity to exhibit the valuable collections of the Government of the United States. The continued interest manifested by the people of the country and foreign nations in this celebration, and a more careful consideration of the subject since the first report of this committee, has more deeply impressed the committee with the grandeur and importance of the undertaking, and confirmed them in the opinion that it will prove a great national advantage.

In conclusion is attached a statement from Senator Farwell saying the subscriptions to the fair fund are bona fide, and will be paid.

The minority report, signed by Belden, Hatch and Flower, says: The undersigned members dissent from the foregoing report and its conclusions, and believe the following resolution, which we voted for, should have been adopted: "That when a guarantee fund of $10,000,000 shall be secured by Chicago, the sufficiency and legality of which shall be satisfactory to this committee, we report the pending bill with such amendments as the committee may agree upon."

THE CHEROKEE STRIP.

Under No Condition Will Squatters Be Allowed to Remain.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—It has been discovered that the Cherokee Homesteaders' Association has issued a secret circular calling for a general raid into the strip from all directions, April 22d. It says there is good reason to believe that they will not be molested if a sufficiently large number go in. On the strength of this President Harrison has authorized the statement that the settlement of the strip will not be allowed until duly authorized, no matter what proportions the raid assumes.

THE WORK OF EVICTING BEGUN.

GUTHRIE, I. T., March 19.—The patrol of the Cherokee strip by the forces of the United States army began today. These troops were massed at this point this morning. From here they will march to four different points along the southern boundary of the strip; thence they will march in squads, covering as much of the ground as possible, north through the strip, notifying the settlers who now remain, of the President's notice, and forcibly evicting those who refuse to go voluntarily. Once out they will be kept out.

THE CHEROKEES VERY ANGRY.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 19.—A Republic special from Tahlequah says the Cherokees are terribly incensed over the invasion of the strip. The talk on the streets and at the State House is all of one kind, denunciation of the boomers, but the blame for it is laid upon President Harrison. They attribute the invasion largely to the President's proclamation expelling the cattle men from the strip, and it is evident the prospects for the settlement of the strip question are not so bright as a week ago. The full-bloods are especially excited, and it is said they are holding secret meetings, denouncing the raid and condemning the Republican party for its course in dealing with the cattlemen. No information has been received as to the damage done by the boomers, but a demand will be made on the United States Government for a large sum to cover the injury to the grazing lands.

THE CATTLE MEN TAKE ACTION.

CALDWELL, Kansas, March 19.—The Cherokee Strip Stock Association today adopted resolutions providing for the removal of their cattle, in accordance with the President's proclamation. A memorial to the President was adopted, requesting protection against boomer raids.

THE STEELE COURT-MARTIAL.

Private Wild Evidently a Crank and a Croaker.

CHICAGO, March 19.—The court-martial for the trial of Lieutenant Steele, of the Eighth cavalry, assembled here yesterday at noon and proceeded to hear the testimony of Private Wild, the complaining witness. His testimony was substantially in accordance with the facts as already given in the public press. After hearing one other witness, Corporal Shott, of the Fifteenth infantry, in corroboration of Wild's story, which completed the case of the complainant, the court took a recess until today.

This morning evidence was introduced to prove that Wild formerly served in the army under the name of Daniel P. Ward. Wild, when questioned, declined to say how long he had been in the service, and admitted that he could not bring anyone to testify to his good character.

On behalf of Steele a number of troopers testified that he had always treated them in a gentlemanly way, and that they would not believe Wild under oath. Steele offered to bring every member of his company to prove both these points. Adjourned till tomorrow.

IS FAULKNER DEAD?

The Story That the Bank-Wrecker Lives Is Not Believed.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 19.—C. L. Bingham, receiver of the First National Bank, of Dansville, declares the report that Lester B. Faulkner is alive and in Mexico, without the least particle of truth. Rev. Ward, who officiated at Faulkner's funeral, also says he is dead. He saw the body after death.

The story published last evening was to the effect that Faulkner, the wrecker of the Dansville Bank, supposed to have died January 27th, availed himself of the death of his gardener, to have the body buried as his own, and then quietly left for Mexico.

Conductor Houghtaling Arraigned.

BUFFALO, March 19.—Conductor Houghtaling was arraigned this morning, charged with misdemeanor in being responsible for the Bay View accident, in accordance with the verdict of the Coroner's jury. He pleaded not guilty, and was held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

The Newark Launched.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—The Newark, the last of the three steel cruisers built for the Government by Cramp & Sons, was successfully launched this afternoon in a blinding snowstorm. The vessel was christened by the daughter of Congressman Boutelle.

Not so Bad as Reported.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 19.—The shortage of Auditor Whiteside was erroneously reported last night. It is only $6,882, and the city is secured by good bonds.

OPPRESSED FARMERS.

Senator Voorhees Espouses the Grangers' Cause.

WHY FARMS ARE MORTGAGED.

Agriculture Depressed by Vicious Legislation—Congressional Proceedings.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Vice-President Morton occupied the chair in the Senate today. The resolution offered by Voorhees, Monday, as to agricultural depression, was taken up, and Voorhees addressed the Senate. He said, in part, it was now nearly thirty years since the close of the war had given to avarice an opportunity to prey upon the self-sacrificing patriots of the country. The measures resorted to for the taxation of one class of citizens and the enrichment of another had been legislation by which the burden of the public debt had been doubled, silver demonetized, and a high protective tariff established. He characterized the protective tariff as a curse. The farmers of the United States today did not receive on an average more than ten cents a bushel for corn, fifty cents for wheat and two to three cents per pound for hogs. Every pretense of a home market for the farmer was a fraud, and every pretense of taxing wheat and oats and potatoes for his benefit was a cheat and a shame. It was a notorious truth that the tariff as it now stood increased the farmer's expense account from 35 to 100 per cent. on every implement of industry with which he toiled, and last year binding twine was raised to 18 cents a pound by a trust. He did not believe that the hand of the farmer would hold the Republican ticket at the next Presidential election. Not only had there been no increase in the value of land in the last quarter of a century, but there had been an absolute loss of thirty-three per cent. Improved farm lands today, under the most favorable circumstances, would not on a general average realize more than two-thirds of what their value had been twenty-five years ago. Ohio farms were now under mortgage to the amount of $300,000,000. In Illinois twenty-three per cent. of the whole face of the State was under mortgage, they amounting to $402,000,000. Forty-seven per cent. of the State of Michigan was under mortgage; in Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and the whole Northwest from twenty to fifty per cent. of the farm lands were under mortgages at such rates of interest as the farmers could never pay out of their crops, to say nothing of the principal. The farmers were thus brought face to face with ruin. Nor were the farmers of New England different in that respect from those of the Western States. The remedies to be applied were: First, tariff reform; second, a full supply of legal tender money; third, the free coinage of silver; fourth, the suppression by law of gambling in futures; fifth, a liberal policy of pensions.

Voorhees summed up his arguments with reference to the subsidized press, "blocks of five," official patronage, etc.

Wilson, of Iowa, said he desired to read a letter from a farmer of Iowa who knew by practical experience more about the condition of the farming class than the Senator from Indiana ever learned in his readings. He then read a letter, which has already been published, showing the comparatively low prices of farm produce and the high prices of manufactured goods before the war.

The Blair Educational bill was taken up, and Pierce spoke in opposition to it. Evarts and Call advocated it.

Allison, from the finance committee, reported with amendments the House bill in relation to the collection of revenues. Placed on the calendar.

Adjourned.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

The Maryland contested election case of Mudd against Compton was called up. The debate was limited to six hours. Lacey, of Iowa, opened the discussion in support of the claims of the contestant. Dalzell and Greenhalge also advocated the case of the contestant, and the case of the sitting member was upheld by Moore and Gibson. Pending a vote, the House adjourned.

CONGRESSIONAL NOTES.

The House committee on public lands today ordered a favorable report on Comstock's bill for the relief of settlers on Northern Pacific indemnity lands, with a few amendments.

The Republican members of the ways and means committee will submit their tariff bill to the full committee on Friday. The agreement reached on Mexican lead ores provides that lead ores shall be dutiable at 1½ cents per pound, and will have to pay the duty regardless of whether or not the lead ore is associated with other ores.

Among the amendments made by the Senate committee to the Administrative Customs bill reported to the Senate this afternoon, is the striking out of the provision that it shall not apply to articles exported from the United States and reimported. A section is added fixing the time of the act to take effect, July 1, 1890, except Section 12, which shall take effect at once. This section provides for the appointment by the President of nine general appraisers, not more than five from one political party.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The President, accompanied by ex-Senator Sewell, left Washington this afternoon on a ducking expedition to the preserves of the Maryland Ducking Club.

Among the nominations today were the following: Commodore E. K. Brekham to be Rear-Admiral. Postmasters: Arizona, J. Knox Corbett, Tucson; John W. Archibald, Prescott.

The United States steamship Dispatch, which was aground with Secretary Tracy on board, has come off and reached Norfolk uninjured. Mr. Tracy has gone on board again, having been taken off while the vessel was aground.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TRADE S.S.S. MARK

Mrs. Geo. P. Smoote, a highly cultivated and estimable lady of Prescott, Ark., writes under date of April 22,'89: "During the summer of 1887 my eyes became inflamed, and my stomach and liver hopelessly disordered. Nothing I ate agreed with me. I took chronic diarrhœa, and for some time my life was despaired of by my family. The leading physicians of the country were consulted, but the medicines administered by them never did me any permanent good, and I lingered between life and death, the latter being preferable to the agonies I was enduring. In May, 1888, I became disgusted with physicians and their medicines. I dropped them all and depended solely on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), a few bottles of which made me permently well—well from then until now."

It Builds up Old People.

My mother who is a very old lady, was physically broken down. The use of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) has entirely restored her to health.

C. C. P., Section 407.

The people of the State of California send greeting to James Carroll, defendant:

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff, in the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days.

The said action is brought to obtain judgment against you.

The judgment and decree of this Court that it fix a day within which defendant be required to pay to this plaintiff the said sum of three hundred and seventy-five dollars in U. THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1890.

CALIFORNIANS are making themselves quite conspicuous in real estate movements in Washington city of late. Mr. Neulands's large purchases of suburban lots a couple of months ago have been followed up by considerable investments by Senator Hearst, Gen. Tom Clunie and others. The marked attractions of the capital as a social center have imparted a great speculative interest to real estate there, and many people seem inclined to see if they can't duplicate President Cleveland's luck, who pulled out a clear $100,000 profit from his Oakview venture.

SENATOR VOORHEES made a great speech yesterday on the remedies for the agricultural depression to which his resolution referred. According to the Tall Sycamore these are, tariff reform, a full supply of legal tender money, the free coinage of silver, the suppression by law of gambling in futures and a liberal pension policy. Most of these propositions are sound, and some of them eminently so, but they are as far off as the millenium as long as the New York gold bug can keep his grasp upon the throat of the nation. We would be quite content to take a small installment of the good things invoked by the gifted Indiana Senator, and trust to time for the rest.

THERE are a good many unpleasant indications that the silver legislation so long hoped for by the miners and debtor class of the United States will be denied to them at the present session of Congress. It has been conveniently arranged to have the House develop a partiality for the Windom bill, while the Senate has already passed the Jones bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue $4,500,000 worth of silver certificates monthly. A great impetus would be given to silver mining by the enactment of the Jones measure into a law. Its opponents say that it provides for the issue of more silver certificates yearly than the country produces. This view of the matter overlooks two important consideration—the first, that fair treatment of the white metal would increase its production as well as value, and the other that silver bullion has been accumulating in considerable quantities in this country since it was demonetized in 1873. If a Secretary of the Treasury of either party could be induced to carry out the maximum provision of the Bland bill, and buy and coin $4,000,000 of silver monthly we should have no occasion for any new legislation for the present.

IT IS sometimes pleasant to encounter a rich man who is not sordid, and it is not amiss when this individual happens to be a banker. Mr. I. W. Hellman, who left Los Angeles yesterday to assume control of the Nevada Bank of San Francisco, is one of this species of rara avis. During the last days of his stay amongst us he was busy winding up the estates of which he has had charge. Years ago, when matters were black in Los Angeles, and the boom had not yet started, he consented to act as executor to the estate of Don Mateo Keller, an old friend. The property was then practically bankrupt. To bring it out he was obliged to fall back upon his own pocket. But for the funds which he lavishly supplied it would have been engulfed and the heirs would have had nothing. Yesterday he turned it over to the Messrs. Smith & Patton for the heirs, the youngest heir having attained the legal age, without a dollar of incumbrance and worth fully half a million dollars in these times which are supposed by our friends of the North to be blacker than Cimmeria. Most Angeleños remember that when old Andreas Briswalter died he named Mr. Hellman one of his executors and one of his residuary heirs. This unique banker accepted the trust and announced that he would not consent to receive any pecuniary benefaction from the estate, In the past he has given $5,000 each of the funds accruing to him from the Briswalter estate to three of the leading charitable institutions of this city. In a final distribution of the residuary portion of this property, he the other day gave his portion to the Roman Catholic Bishop of Los Angeles for purposes of charity. He was guided in this last act by the fact that the deceased Briswalter was a Catholic, and that the bulk of the beneficence should naturally take that direction. Such acts of probity and disinterestedness, combined with his high financial abilities, have doubtless largely contributed to the great estimation in which our late townsman was held, not only in Southern California but throughout the Commonwealth, and account in some degree for the fact that when $2,500,000 were required to reconstitute the Nevada Bank quite $15,000,000 were tendered, some of the offers coming from points even as far East as St. Louis. The Nevada Bank, under its new management, will represent people worth collectively $250,000,000, and its career cannot fail to be successful and brilliant.

An Instructive Comparison.

About ten days ago the St. Louis Globe Democrat detailed a corps of reporters to look into the question of the profits of farming in the country immediately tributary to that city, the inquiry embracing Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, and other distinctively agricultural States. The result was embodied in three pages of interviews, and was by no means such as to encourage any one to select farming as a calling. Nineteen out of twenty of the farmers gave the most discouraging account of their experiences. Frequently the proprietor of three and four hundred acres would not make as much net money as some California orchardists realize off of a single acre even in the deciduous fruits. Where corn brought twenty-five cents a bushel there was a bare living in a farm of several hundred acres, but even then the situation was gloomy considering the capital and labor invested. But over extensive areas of the country embraced in the inquiry corn by no means brought twenty-five cents a bushel. In portions of Kansas during the past season the price has frequently gone as low as fifteen and in some extreme cases ten cents a bushel. Where stock and hog raising have been combined with the growing of corn, in a few cases a profit is figured out. But in no portion of this voluminous exhibit do we find anything to encourage a man to embark his capital and muscle in the business of farming in the region indicated. In most cases the surroundings of the farmer were bare and unattractive, and a whole family may work from morning till night, day in and day out, and barely earn a subsistence. If, at the end of the year, a few cattle and horses and hogs have been carried through the winter, and the family have been comfortably clothed and fed, that is the most that is looked for. All the crops not needed for the maintenance of the family, and to carry the farm stock over the severe winters, go into the hands of remorseless middlemen and grasping transportation companies. Yet we are writing of the favored territory that has built up such superb cities as St. Louis and Chicago. No wonder that the cities are crowded with eager contestants for positions as clerks and counter-jumpers. One incident related in the Globe-Democrat is particularly remarkable. The owner of a well-improved farm of three hundred acres in Missouri told the interviewer that it was as much as he could do to maintain his family, and that if he had been obliged to pay for his help he would have been working at a dead loss, and a considerable one. In that region big and little—every one about the farm—turn in and work like a house-a-fire, and consider themselves repaid by a frugal livelihood—bare food, fuel and clothing.

The same state of facts which is graphically portrayed in the region west of the Missouri river by this journal is substantially repeated in the Mississippi valley.

The parallel which we are about to draw has already doubtless suggested itself to our readers.

A man can come to Los Angeles and buy ten acres of land, with a water-right, adapted to the growth of the citrus fruits. He can set out orange trees three years from the seed. In three years more, with approved budded oranges, he can rely upon an income ranging from $100 to $200 an acre. On these ten acres he can grow alfalfa and vegetables while his fruit trees are maturing. At the end of his short probation he will make more net money off his ten acres than the Missouri farmer can hope to realize from his three hundred acres, and he will, in addition, have a pleasant and even poetical home. This result will be accomplished with one-fiftieth part of the labor of the Missouri farmer.

Or he can come to Los Angeles and buy ten acres of good alfalfa land. From these ten acres he can cut one hundred tons of excellent Chilian clover yearly, and if he cares to run a dairy he can make more money off his miniature farm than his Missouri rival off his three hundred.

Or he can do the same thing with twenty acres of good bottom land planted in corn.

Or, if he has a fancy for truck raising, he can take five acres of the rich lands of the Cahuenga, San Felipe Lugo or Ranchita, and make more money by raising early tomatoes, potatoes and cauliflower than the Missourian can clear off his hundreds of broad acres.

Last but not least, he will accomplish these pleasant and profitable results in a climate where it is a perfect delight to live, and where every inspiration, barring twenty days out of the three hundred and sixty-five, discounts anything that is recorded in Nice, Mentone or the other famous health and pleasure resorts of the world.

These are the truths that will make Southern California and its Queen City and County, Los Angeles, in a few years, one of the most densely populated regions of the earth, and which will make this city stretch eastward and northward to the foot of the mountains, and westward and southward to the Pacific ocean, before the twentieth century has fairly opened.

OUR Republican contemporaries seem to be very much agitated just now over the Republican candidate for Governor at the coming election. As the gentleman, whoever he may be, will be mauled and macerated, figuratively speaking, and tossed a defeated man into the limbo of things lost upon earth politically, this is a good time to "holler" for the man you hate most, oh Republican man and brother. The Democrats have a copper-riveted lien upon that gubernatorial chair.

THE great storm predicted by Wiggins is now due, and judging by the rain which fairly started in yesterday, it looks as if the Canadian soothsayer had hit it for once. His disturbance was to begin on the Pacific and then cavort over the continent. He may possibly have the almanac-maker's luck of hitting the weather once in an age.

BEYOND THE ROCKIES.

Crevasses Increasing in the Mississippi Bayous.

A LARGE AREA INUNDATED.

The Indianapolis Disaster Augmented—A Young Lady Persecuted to Death.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

GREENVILLE, Miss., March 19.—Offut's break has been widened to the extent of 350 feet, up to 6:30 o'clock tonight. One of the broken ends has finally been secured and the other end will be made secure tomorrow. No great damage has yet been reported as happening from the overflows. Only one cabin in the immediate vicinity of the break has been washed away. The water is spreading on the low places through the plantations and swamps, and is now within four miles of Greenville, in Black bayou. A small embankment is being thrown up in the northern portion of the city. It is thought Greenville is in no danger from this break. The river has fallen here five inches since the levee at Luna, Ark., broke. No effort was being made to close the crevasse at last reports, and it was widened and a large column of water passing through.

HELENA, Ark., March 19.—The town of Clarendon is now pretty nigh covered with water from the White river. The river rose so fast that the conductor was compelled to move the train on the Arkansas Midland road out two miles from Clarendon in order to make his run into Helena. Between Duncan and Clarendon the water is on some parts of the track six feet deep.

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La., March 19.—The crevasse at Raleigh this afternoon was 3,000 feet wide and from ten to twelve feet deep. The water was going through with tremendous force and velocity. Attempts are being made to fasten the ends so as to prevent further abrasion.

TALLULAH, La., March 19.—All west of here is a vast sheet of water to the hills.

BAYOU MACON, La., March 19.—The water in the overflowed section is not rising, as it is finding its natural outlets.

CLERGYMEN'S TRIALS.

The Charges Against Bishop Esher Being Ventilated.

READING, Pa., March 19.—The committee of the Evangelical Association appointed to try Bishop Esher, of Chicago, began hearing today. The charges read were in substance as follows: Unchristian conduct, slander, evil-speaking and falsehood, creating dissensions, perpetuating and intensifying aigtation in the church, and disturbing her peace by the revival of old and previously adjudicated differences. Bishop Esher was not in attendance.

A PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR'S TROUBLES.

PITTSBURG, March 19.—Dr. Ewing, for twenty-five years pastor of the Sixth United Presbyterian church of this city, was yesterday arraigned before the Monongahela Presbytery on the complaint of some of his congregation, who objected to his marriage with his deceased wife's sister. A church law declares such marriages incestuous, permitting a man to marry a no nearer relative of his deceased wife than he could of his own. So discontent spread in the church, and Dr. Ewing tendered his resignation, which the congregation refused to accept by a vote of 163 to 76. The matter was then taken to the Presbytery, which had a lively wrangle over it. It ended in a resolution of censure by a vote of 30 to 12. The minority thought the sentence too light. They wanted the doctor discharged from the ministry, and appeal was allowed to the synod, which will meet in December. Dr. Ewing's resignation was unanimously accepted by the Presbytery.

PERSECUTED TO DEATH.

Anonymous Letters Drive a Young Lady to Suicide.

JOLIET, Ill., March 19.—A sensation was created this evening by the suicide of Miss Jessie Waite, daughter of a well-known resident. Three years ago an anonymous letter writer began persecuting the girl with imputations of scandulous conduct, and finally threatening to kill her. Her mother finally placed the case in the hands of the authorities. David White, her cousin, was arrested on suspicion. No reliable evidence was produced, and he was simply placed in bonds to keep the peace. The anonymous letters kept coming this year regularly, and it is thought the girl became distracted. She left a letter saying she could endure the torture no longer.

TOPPLING WALLS.

The Indianapolis Disaster Augmented, But Without Fatality.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 19.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon the east wall of the Becher block, adjoining the burned Bowen-Merrill building, crashed down on top of the ruins. This evening for a time the wildest rumors of disaster were afloat, but investigation proved that only two men were slightly hurt, though many had narrow escapes. The flames broke out again in the ruins, and are still burning tonight. It is feared that two three-story buildings adjoining the wreckage have been damaged by the crash, and are likely to succumb.

Who Killed Mrs Bingham?

CHICAGO, March 19.—At the inquiry into the cause of the death of Mrs. Jennie Bingham, whose mysterious murder was mentioned last night, an alibi was established for her husband, who was proved to have been in Milwaukee Sunday night. The police are working on several theories, the principal one being that she went driving with a man they are trying to locate, Sunday night, and while stupified with liquor or drugs fell out of the buggy, receiving fatal injuries. The woman is said to have been addicted to morphine.

The Cruiser Newark.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—The Newark, launched here today, is an unarmored steel cruiser, 310 feet long, 49½ feet extreme beam, with a maximum draught of 20½ feet, and head draught of 18¾ feet, securing an intended displacement of 4,083 tons. She will be fitted with twin screws, triple expansion engines, which are to furnish 6,000 horse power under natural, and 8,500 under forced draught, thus enabling her to attain a speed of 18 knots an hour.

Governor Toole Will Wed.

CHICAGO, March 19.—A News Washington special says the engagement of Miss Rosecrans, daughter of General Rosecrans, to Governor Toole, of Montana, is announced. Miss Rosecrans is 25 or 26 years old, has a fine figure and a handsome face, and has been a belle in society here. The marriage will take place immediately after Lent.

A CRASH IN DRY GOODS.

A Large New York House Goes to the Wall.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The dry goods trade was startled today by the failure of John F. Plummer & Co. They made a general assignment for the benefit of their creditors to their cashier, Jeremiah P. Murphy. Plummer also made an individual assignment. Murphy says the assignment is principally due to a depreciation in the value of goods the firm has been carrying some time. The creditors by uniting can possibly make the suspension only temporary. Murphy says the liabilities are about one million dollars, of which $300,000 is for borrowed money, and the balance is due to manufacturers and for trust money deposited with the firm by relatives and friends. The assets are nominally a little larger than the liabilities, and consist of stock, outstanding accounts and valuable real estate owned by Plummer. The trade attributes the failure to over advances, chiefly on satinet accounts, and complications arising from the old firm of Stover & Darling, whose business Plummer took. Plummer was active in Republican politics, but it is claimed that did not interfere with his business. He is a personal friend of President Harrison and took a leading part in the last Presidential campaign, in the dry goods trade.

SAN DIEGO BOOMING.

Encouraging News For the Bay'n-climate.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The statement is made that Kernan's News Company publishes Boston advices that say that President Manvel, of the Atchison system, is in San Francisco negotiating for the establishment of a trans-Pacific line of steamships from San Diego.

It is also reported that Henry Baring is on his way to join Manvel, and important developments are expected in the next ten days.

The following is sent out by Dow, Jones & Co. as a Boston special to the Financial News: President Kimball, of the San Diego Company, is much encouraged regarding that property. Inquiries for land are more numerous, and several sales have been lately effected. President Manvel, of the Atchison, who is in San Diego, is reported as saying there was need of some independent connection in the interest of the Atchison.

Undoubtedly a Crank.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Dr. Harrison Wagner, whose numerous and heavy suits against the Adams Express Company, instituted in small county courts, have recently attracted considerable attention, is locked up in the police station here, to await the pleasure of the authorities of Stafford county, Virginia, who want him on the charge of the forgery of the signatures to the documents in a case. Wagner says he was a manufacturer of medicines in Frederick county, Maryland, and brought suits against the Adams Express Company in several States for failure to deliver his medicines, obtaining numerous judgments by default. He asserts his innocence of forgery. Wagner is thought to be a crank.

A Mysterious Suicide.

NEW YORK, March 19.—A well-dressed young man shot himself through the heart, in Prospect park, this afternoon. His identity is still a mystery, though it is reported that he was the son of Dr. W. W. Smith, a well-known physician of Myrtle avenue. Two gentlemen called to see the body, and one of them displayed much emotion, but refused to give his name.

Iron-Workers Striking.

PITTSBURG, March 19.—Three hundred men quit work at the Keystone rolling mills tonight on account of a reduction in wages because of poor material. The trouble at Oliver Bros.'s mill over the discharge of a man resulted in the strike of 350 men, and it is alleged that all of the 1,800 employees will go out tomorrow.

Heading for No-Man's-Land.

LIBERAL, Kas., March 19.—Despite the President's proclamation, a party of boomers, numbering 200 or 300, have started for No-Man's-Land, where they intend to found a town at Hardesty. They say the President's order does not apply to No-Man's-Land.

Minnie Maddern Re-Married.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Miss Mary Augusta Davey, known to the stage and general public as Minnie Maddern, was married today to Harrison Grey Fiske, editor of the New York Dramatic Mirror. Mrs. Fiske was recently divorced from her first husband, Legrande White.

Suspected of Robbery.

MISSOULA, Mont., March 19.—E. A. Searles and W. C. Payne, who have been living near here for the past two months, were arrested today and charged with robbing the Northern Pacific Express office at Brainerd, Minn., of $15,000 about a year ago.

An Eastern Blizzard.

BOSTON, March 19.—Dispatches from various points along the coast report a very severe snow and wind storm. Wrecks are feared.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Snow began falling heavily this morning at 11 o'clock.

Danforth Knocked Out.

NEW ORLEANS, March 19.—Prof. James Conners, of the Buffalo Athletic Club, knocked out Tommy Danforth of Harlem, in 24 rounds tonight. Danforth did most of the leading and made a very showy struggle but was over-matched.

Mrs. Burchell Discharged.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 19.—Mrs. Burchell was taken before the police magistrate today, but as neither Detective Murry nor Crown Attorney Raymond had any evidence against Mrs. Burchell the magistrate discharged her.

The Sugar Trust Dividend.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Application of the sugar trust to declare a dividend of two and one-half per cent. on its fifty million dollars of certificates was today referred to Judge O'Brien, and will be heard tomorrow.

Marries the Belle of Lexington.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Miss Annie Lyle Bradley, the belle of Lexington, Kentucky, will be married in this city tomorrow to Col. W. S. Barnes, the well-known turf man.

Explosion of Gas.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 19.—An explosion of gas in the Midvale colliery tonight resulted in the death of one man, and the serious injury of four others.

Died at Denver.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, March 19.—Hon. James T. Lane, of this city, and prominent in the Republican politics of Iowa, died at Denver today, aged 60.

THE NEW CHANCELLOR.

General Von Caprivi Steps Into Bismarck's Shoes.

A GENERAL REORGANIZATION.

Numerous Changes in the Ministry. The Old Prince Glad to Be Out of the Harness.

Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD

BERLIN, March 19.—General Von Caprivi, commander of the Tenth Army Corps, has been appointed Chancellor of the Empire to succeed Bismarck.

Bismarck, in his note to the Emperor tendering his resignation, alleged that old age and failing health were the reasons for desiring to withdraw from public life.

Today's papers call attention to the fact that while taking lunch yesterday with the delegates to the Labor Conference, Bismarck gave a cordial greeting to Jules Simon, head of the French delegation, and had a long conversation with him. He has invited all the French delegates to dine with him tomorrow.

The National Gazette says General Von Caprivi, the new Chancellor, has also been appointed President of the Prussian Ministry.

The Gazette also says Count Herbert Bismarck persists in resigning the position of Imperial Foreign Minister, and that he will be succeeded by either Von Radowitz, German Ambassador at Constantinople, or Count Von Hatzfeldt, German Ambassador at London.

LATER—Chancellor Caprivi will not assume the foreign portfolio. Von Boettecher becomes President of the Prussian Ministry. Count Eulenberg, Governor of Hesse Nassau, succeeds Von Boettecher as Minister of the Interior. Count Herbert Bismarck will receive an ambassadorship.

Ministers Herrfurth and Mayback have resigned.

The committee of the Labor Conference has agreed to the exclusion of children under 12 from factories.

The Tageblatt says the Emperor has dismissed Count Von Waldersee, his chief of staff.

LONDON, March 19.—The Berlin correspondent of the News denies the story that Bismarck was refused an interview by the Emperor the evening before his resignation. It is reported that the Emperor was annoyed at Bismarck for interviewing Windthorst without consulting him. It is said to be certain that Bismarck did not intend to resign at present, because he intended to make a great political speech at the reopening of the Reichstag, and await a chance for an impressive exit from the political scene. Bismarck is in excellent spirits. He suffers from insomnia, and earnestly desires rest. His family, and especially his wife, are glad he resigned.

The Times's Berlin correspondent says: Although a soldier of the first order, Caprivi, in the opinion of all his intimates, is very much more, and if personal appearance counts for anything, he is a man of great force of character and will. He bears a remarkable likeness to Bismarck.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent says the Emperor likes Caprivi personally, but he is intractable by nature and not likely to be Chancellor long.

BERLIN, March 19.—The bourse is weak in consequence of Bismarck's resignation.

LONDON, March 19, 12:30 p. m.—The stock market is weak on account of Bismarck's retirement from office.

Russian Affairs.

LONDON, March 19.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily News says the Russian Government is disagreeably impressed by the meetings held in England and America to denounce the outrages committed upon exiles in Siberia.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 19.—At a military conference here, General Unterberger, Governor of the province of Amoor, advocated a policy of moderation toward China, on the ground that in case of war Russia could place only twenty battalions against 80,000 Manchurian soldiers. He urged the speedy construction of the Siberian railway as the best counteraction to the massing of Chinese troops on the Siberian boundary, with the object of seizing the Russian ports on the North Pacific coast.

MONEY ORDER EMBEZZLER.

A San Francisco Postoffice Employee Behind the Bars.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The Chronicle will say tomorrow Postoffice Inspectors Seyboldt and Irwin and Assistant Postmaster Carr commenced an examination tonight of the accounts of James S. Kennedy, Jr., foreign money order clerk at the San Francisco postoffice, and his books show a shortage of 668 money orders, ranging in value from $10 to $20. Inspector Seyboldt received a dispatch from the chief of the Secret Service of New York City this afternoon, inquiring about a money order issued in this city February 10th last, payable at London, England, which was reported missing. Inspector Irwin was detailed to make an examination of the records, and Kennedy's manner at once attracted his attention. After a number of futile efforts to escape Kennedy yielded, and it is stated he confessed at first that he was short some $1,200 or $1,500. He stated that he had been drinking freely and speculating. When he was turned over to United States Marshal Franks this evening $2,000, in twenty-dollar gold pieces and greenbacks, was found concealed on his person. He is stated to have told Franks that the amount embezzled would reach $12,000 or $15,000. Kennedy was appointed a clerk in the postoffice by ex-Postmaster Backus, in 1883. He will be arraigned before the United States Commissioner tomorrow.

A BOY PLAINTIFF.

He Wants an Interest in His Father's Estate.

BOSTON, March 19.—James Seth Adams, a boy of 7, is suing through friends his father's third wife to establish his right to one-fourth of an estate of $75,000, left by the late Seth Adams, of Newton, to the children of his brother, Charles W. Adams. The plaintiff is the child of Charles W. Adams and Hannah Phillips. His mother was born in England in 1853. She met the plaintiff's father in 1873, and came to America with him in the capacity of governess for his children; subsequently she returned to England, but in 1878 returned to America and assumed marital relations with her future husband. They resided in various sections of the country, and in 1882 the plaintiff was born in San Francisco. A few months later Adams obtained a divorce in California from his third wife, the defendant in the present suit. He died in 1887. The third wife contends that the divorce was illegal, on the ground that the husband had no domicile in California; that she was not notified of the proceedings, and not guilty of abandonment, as alleged. If this divorce was illegal, plaintiff has no share in the estate in question.

BURNING MINES.

Five Men Lose Their Lives—One of Them a Hero.

HURLEY, Wis., March 19.—A great fire is raging in the Germania mine. Five miners have perished. All efforts to stay the flames are unsuccessful. The unfortunate men are James Thomas, his son, Joseph Thomas, Hugh Walter, Jimmy Sullivan, William Banks, all miners. The loss will reach $100,000.

Walter escaped from the mine with about 400 men when the fire first broke out, but returned to rescue others still in the mine, and was himself burned to death.

MARQUETTE, Mich., March 19.—The fire in the Norway mine is still raging. Yesterday morning the flames were streaming from the main shaft, threatening the pump-house, shaft-house, etc. Five miners were caught in the clip, and narrowly escaped death. General Superintendent Kelly, Captain Bond and a party went in the mine. They were overcome by smoke, and had a narrow escape.

Indicted Deputy Sheriffs.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Charles E. Hebbard, a special deputy connected with the Sheriff's office, was arrested this morning, charged with extortion. Yesterday Muideman was arrested on an indictment for extortion while employed in the Sheriff's office. Deputy Sheriff McGonigal and ex-Warden Keating were rearrested. The District Attorney discovered that the indictments were faulty, and the Grand Jury was asked to frame new ones. The original indictments charged extortion. The new ones will make the offense bribery. Bail of $10,000 was given again by each. Deputy Sheriff Charles Linderman and Joseph Young were also arrested. The former was indicted for petit larceny and bribery, and the latter for bribery.

Passenger Trains Collide.

MILWAUKEE, March 19.—A collision between two passenger trains is reported on the Northwestern road at Lavalle, Wisconsin. Several persons are reported killed.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Telegrams to the general offices of the Northwestern road say that the accident at Lavalle, Wis., happened like this: Two passenger trains were to meet there; there was a mistake as to the sidetracking of one, and a collision resulted. One woman, four men and one child were hurt, two quite seriously.

Jurors Charged with Corruption.

ASHLAND, Wis., March 19.—District Attorney Rossman is authority for the statement that at least two of the jurors in the case of Cashier Perrin, charged with robbing the Hurley National Bank, have been bribed. The jury has now been out two days. It is said that a number of prominent men are implicated.

LATER.—At noon the jury in the Perrin case reported, unable to agree. They stood six to six. The jury was then discharged.

PACIFIC COAST.

Meeting of the Board of Commerce.

VARIOUS TOPICS DISCUSSED.

Anti-Chinese Legislation Endorsed. Major Jones Speaks for Southern California.

Associated Press Dispatches to THE HERALD.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The Pacific Coast Board of Commerce, composed of delegates from the various commercial organizations in California, Oregon and Washington, met here today. President Samuel Collier, of Tacoma, presided. The first subject for discussion was: "The Best Methods for Enlarging the Organization." It was decided that an address should be prepared and sent to all local commercial bodies on the Coast, asking them to express their opinions on various subjects which would be presented to them.

A resolution was next adopted protesting against the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion act, and asking for such additional legislation as will effectually prevent Chinese immigration. The bill recently introduced in Congress by Representative Morrow, on the subject of Chinese exclusion, was indorsed.

OPINIONS WANTED.

A resolution was adopted to ask all local commercial organizations to express an opinion on the following subjects and report at the annual meeting in September next: Best methods of extending the scope of the organization; expediency of subsidizing shipping; legislation in regard to silver coinage; a national bankruptcy law; Pacific harbor and river improvements and harbor defenses; anti-Chinese legislation, interstate commerce; subsidizing oceanic cable lines; Pacific Coast exhibit at the World's Fair.

MAJOR JONES'S REMARKS.

In speaking of the best methods of enlarging the organization, E. W. Jones, of Los Angeles, believed that very few people could be drawn together to discuss the Chinese question, the advisability of a Pacific cable or the benefits to be derived from the Nicaragua canal. The questions were too large, too abstract, and there was not time to discuss them fully. If these questions were to be advanced the delegates would have to do the labor in detail. The people of the different sections were more interested in local matters. These questions, then, should be submitted to the local boards in detail. The individual member has to be shown that he will be personally benefited. He must be shown how his wheat can be carried cheaper if a certain proposition is carried out. He must know how it will affect the price of his oranges and wine. When these things are explained to him, and he sees the advantage that is to accrue to him, then he is willing to consider the question.

As far as the southern portion of the State is concerned, the people there would like a change in the Interstate Commerce law. They would like a reduction in the passenger rates to and from the East; in fact, they would like the railroads to engage in a rate war all round.

The Santa Ana Board of Trade was admitted to membership.

THE MOLDERS' STRIKE.

All But Four of the Imported Men Induced to Quit.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The striking iron-molders gained something of a victory today when they induced all but four of the forty-six molders brought out from the East by the foundries, to quit work. The non-union molders were taken in charge by representatives of the Iron-Molders' Union and escorted to the latter's headquarters, where they will be taken care of. Eight of them left for the East this afternoon on the overland train, their fares being paid by the union, which expects to send away a number more tomorrow. The manufacturers say they are not discouraged at seeing the imported molders leaving, and are determined to bring non-union men from the East until they fill the town with molders and break the strike. They have fifty men about to leave Philadelphia, and when these are started they will send for more. The manufacturers say when they cannot secure non-union men here or in the East who are willing to work, they will close up their business, as the union, they say, is killing the iron industry on the Coast.

STRICTLY BUSINESS.

Governor Waterman Refuses the Request of the Eight-Hour Men.

SACRAMENTO, March 19.—Governor Waterman, in a letter today to Corresponding Secretary Sweany, of the Pacific Coast Eight-hour League, giving his reasons for declining to declare May 1st a legal holiday, says the business interests from which labor draws its support are entitled to consideration, and to check the entire business operations of the State in order that a single organization may make a public demonstration is not business. He calls attention to the fact of this being an exceptional year in distress and destitution, and asks if it would not be better to donate to the unemployed of San Francisco the money which the expenses of such a parade would involve.

Governor Waterman today subscribed $200 to the fund for the unemployed of San Francisco.

CHEAPER FRUIT RATES.

The Transcontinental Association Considering the Question.

SAN DIEGO, March 19.—The Transcontinental Association proper concluded its business today, and this afternoon the freight committee commenced work. The first matter brought before it was the petition of California shippers for reduced rates on carloads East. The afternoon was spent in discussing the matter, but no conclusion was reached. The indications are that Chicago fruit shipments will be granted a uniform rate from all parts of the State.

Resting On the Mud.

PORT TOWNSEND, March 19.—The bark Bundaleer, which was towed ashore yesterday near Dungeness could not be got off by two tugs. She is resting easily on the mud flats and is uninjured.

A HUMANE CAPITALIST.

Mr. Van Buren's Handsome Treatment of the Hassayampa People.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., March 19.—Notwithstanding the fact that the property and books of the Walnut Grove Water Storage Company were swept away by the breaking of their great dam last month, H. S. Van Buren, president of the company, has paid off all claims for that month against the company, and has done much to alleviate the condition of the survivors of those lost by the flood. He was serenaded at his hotel last night by the United States infantry band from Whipple, and was on behalf of the citizens presented a five and one-half ounce nugget of gold, taken from the Hassayampa, below his dam, just after the flood. Chief Justice Wright made the presentation speech. Mr. Van Buren and Mr. Brodie, his chief engineer and superintendent, left for Walnut Grove today to make an examination with the view of rebuilding the dam.

REMARKABLY HUMANE.

Captain Healy Not the Tyrant He Was Represented.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—At the investigation of the charges against Captain Healy today, Lieutenant Buhn, the executive officer of the Bear, testified in behalf of the defense, that under Captain Healy's orders he took several sailors from the bark Estrella to the Bear at Ounalaska, last July, and triced them up about fifteen minutes, and afterwards double-ironed them and fastened them to stanchions below the decks. He said the punishment was not painful at all, and that Captain Healy told him that the tricing up was intended to frighten the men more than to hurt them. Witness also testified that Captain Healy was not intoxicated on the entire trip, and he considered him a remarkably humane man.

LODGED IN JAIL.

Col. Crane, of Lower California, Charged With Cattle-Stealing.

SAN DIEGO, March 19.—News of the arrest of Colonel L. P. Crane, president of the Lower California Land Association, reached here today. He, with two Gleason boys and a man named Hunt, are accused of cattle-stealing. All four are now lying in the Ensenada jail. Colonel Crane was formerly from Chicago and has been the recipient on numerous occasions of considerable newspaper notoriety.

RENO, March 19.—It has been storming hard on the Sierra Nevada mountains for the past thirty-six hours, and tonight the snow storm has reached Reno.

Ex-Collector Hager Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Judge John S. Hager, ex-collector of the port of San Francisco, died at his home in this city, this morning. His death was sudden, and is supposed to have been caused by paralysis of the heart. Last evening he entertained a number of friends at his home, and soon after retiring was stricken with paralysis and died at about 4 o'clock this morning.

A Foreman Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—L. P. Wyman, foreman for J. E. Whittier, roofer, was killed at the old St. Ignatius building, Market street, this afternoon. Wyman was superintending the removal of five heavy trusses, and was struck on the head by a pile of timbers. Several of the workmen had a narrow escape for their lives.

Fined for Contempt.

SAN DIEGO, March 19.—In the Superior Court this afternoon L. L. Boone, a prominent attorney, was fined $50 for contempt of court, with the alternative of ten days in the county jail. He paid his fine. The judge had rendered a decision adverse to Boone's client, which Boone characterized as outrageous.

Oregon Democracy.

SALEM, Ore., March 19.—The Democratic State central committee today decided to hold the State convention in Portland, April 24th. The convention will consist of 192 delegates, apportioned on the vote for Governor four years ago.

Signed the Bill.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 19.—Governor Ferry today signed the Australian election system bill.

Malaria

Is believed to be caused by poisonous miasms arising from low, marshy land or from decaying vegetable matter, and which, breathed into the lungs, enter and poison the blood. If a healthy condition of the blood is maintained by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, one is much less liable to malaria, and Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many severe cases of this distressing affection.

A Wonderful Medicine.

"For malaria I think Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. It has kept my children well right through the summer, and we live in one of the worst places for malaria in Marysville. I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for that all gone feeling, with great benefit." MRS. B. F. DAVIS, Marysville, Cal.

Break-Bone Fever.

"My daughter Pearl was taken with dengue (or break-bone) fever 2 years ago, and my friends thought I would lose her. I had almost given up hope until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took four bottles in four months, and gained 15 pounds. I thank Hood's Sarsaparilla for giving her back to me restored to health and strength." JULIA A. KING, Sherman, Texas.

AN INTERESTING SESSION.

Election of Officers for the Year. Papers Read on Educational Subjects.

The morning session of the State Teachers' Association opened promptly at the appointed time yesterday. Teachers are accustomed to being punctual, and rain cuts no figure in their programme. Over nine hundred persons were in the room when Prof. Foshay came forward and led in the opening song.

The first paper on the programme was a masterly production by W. H. V. Raymond, editor-in-chief of the State series of text books. The paper was entitled, "The Proposition of the American School Trust," and abounded in forcible arguments and appropriate illustrations. The teachers and officers of schools were regarded as stockholders in a great combination or trust, the children as raw material, and the good results attained in the way of education considered as the profits of the trust. The best methods of teaching were duly considered, as well as many errors which would tend to lessen the profits. Attention during the reading was concentrated on the reader and applause was frequent and enthusiastic.

Mrs. Julia B. Hoitt, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, followed Mr. Raymond with a paper on "Educational Discoveries." All progress was said to be the result of some discovery. There was first the felt want, then the study of methods of supplying that want, and lastly, "Eureka, I have it," and a step forward. The oriental nations of antiquity all had characteristic methods of education based upon the underlying principles of their government. All of these systems were but one-sided, and woman was left out of consideration entirely. From these days of antiquity the current of knowledge flowed westward. Christianity dawned upon the world with its tiny but imperishable light. The glory of Rome came and departed. The dark ages shut down upon the world, knowledge crept into monastic homes and was nurtured by the priesthood, the knights and the Mohammedans, until the springtime of the Reformation warmed it into activity again. There are three periods in the world's history which may be considered as the three main discoveries which have changed the entire current of its destiny. First, 1900 years ago the gentle teacher, who spoke ever from his own serene heights, put ever behind him the "Light of Asia," and discovered to the waiting millions a new "Light of the World," and Christianity was born. Second, in the fifteenth century the poor wool-carder rose in his sublime persistence and gave to humanity a new world. Third, the grand old reformer of the sixteenth century blessed us with a discovery that meant liberty, independence, education. During these three periods there were many who wrote, all unconsciously, their names upon the world's annals, and to whom we now pay our grateful reverence. Such are the names of the founders of Christianity. Following in the train of these three parent discoveries is a train of lesser ones. The ever developing possibilities of the universal world, the mysteries of the waters of the earth and the stars of the heaven have one by one come to light, and investigation has not stopped with the material world, but man's own powers, mental and spiritual, have been focused under the powerful lens of modern discovery. Each step taken on the educational road has only proved the necessity for others—and the necessity has paved the way. There are eight or ten important subjects which have lately occupied the thinking minds with the hope of benefiting humanity and the cause of education. Many good things have been thus discovered and put in practice. The subjects are: First, the necessity for universal education to establish the stability of government; second, the establishment of three grades of education—primary, intermediate and university; third, the endowment of colleges of agriculture and the mechanical arts; fourth, school architecture and school decoration; fifth, the introduction into our school curriculum of the study of civil government; sixth, the advantage of uniform courses of study; seventh, the need of efficient professional supervision; eighth, the beneficial effect of teachers' institutes, which a noted writer has called normal schools with a very short course of study. And now I come to what I firmly believe are two of the most beneficial discoveries of our age—the importance of which has not yet fully penetrated the minds of our law-makers and taxpayers. They are: Ninth, the necessity of professional training for our teachers; tenth, the necessity of manual training for our children. With regard to the former it has been discovered that a knowledge of the studies to be taught is not the only requirement for a good teacher, a knowledge of child nature is also absolutely necessary. This has resulted in the study of psychology. With regard to manual training for the children, the public is convinced slowly as to its utility, but it is sure to win its way. It is not designed to turn out skilled mechanics; we only design to increase the power of the mind for thoughtful and intelligent work, to inoculate habits of exact and careful observation, and to develop a love of industry and respect for manual work. It will not be long before the graduates from our few manual training schools will be the lawmakers of our country, to testify to the advantage which such training was to them, and see that the coming generations receive it. And so the work will grow. To teachers is entrusted the leadership of the educational thought of the people; and so, let us see that we adopt, for our own improvement and that of our children, only the best; that we lead public opinion intelligently, persistently and directly, to a clear understanding of our needs.

After the reading of the paper, Prof. Foshay lead the singing of "Help It On."

The next paper, "Thoughts on Observation," by J. A. Woodson, editor of the Sacramento Record-Union, was read by Mr. Thos. A. Kennedy in the absence of the writer. It dealt with the necessity of teaching scholars not only to learn the prescribed lessons, but to apply what they learn. The teacher should endeavor to encourage a spirit of inquiry and observation; he should be ready to answer questions even though the questions should seem trifling and thoughtless. The work of both teacher and scholars should be intelligent—not mechanical. Instruction should walk hand-in-hand with observation. The child should be trained to observe and to think, for in that way there is opened out to them a source of the purest enjoyment for leisure hours, and wisest judgment in the work of life.

The paper on language teaching, by Will S. Monroe, though on the programme at this point, was omitted, Mr. Monroe being placed on the evening programme to take the place of Dr. A. O. Hirst who could not be present.

Two children, a boy and a girl, from the primary grade in San Diego, were introduced on the platform, and Miss Rice exemplified the method of teaching music in the schools of the city of "bay'n climate," by putting the two little ones through a very pleasing little singing exercise, which the children performed very creditably, in spite of the audience watching them. At the close of the exercise the association passed a vote of thanks to the San Diego delegation and to the children, for the same.

Previous to the reading of the next paper, Prof. More announced that the present meeting of the association was the largest ever yet held, there being 516 members already enrolled as present, and other names to come. The announcement was received with applause.

"Mathematics in the Common Schools" was the next paper, by C. M. Ritter, of Chico. The paper was an able one, and was summarized in the following words: "It seems clear that the logical deductions from a thorough examination of our public schools and their relations to the moral, social and industrial forces are: First, that altogether too much time is devoted to the study of arithmetic; second, that a large part of the so-called 'commercial arithmetic should be eliminated from the course of study, the principles of percentage and interest being broad enough to comprehend all that is desirable in that department: that in arithmetic 'shortest solutions' and 'best explanations' should be sought for at all times, both to be as much as possible the result of the pupil's own investigation; fourth, that the metric system of weights and measures should supplant the cumbersome one now in use; that elementary geometry taught inductively should precede the teaching of mensuration, and, as mensuration is of general utility, and as most pupils never enter the higher schools, that it should be taught in the grammar schools; sixth, that more care should be taken in setting forth the objects of the study of mathematics; there should always be an object in view on the part of both the teacher and student; seventh, that the study of mathematics is an indispensable part of any complete system of education."

Afternoon Session.

Prof. More, after calling the convention to order, announced that the directors of the public library offered the visiting teachers the freedom of that institution, and invited them to visit the same during their stay.

On motion of J. G. Kennedy, Mrs. Mary Morrison, the secretary of the association, was allowed $50 as her expenses for the two trips from the Northern part of the State.

The Schumann quartette, of San Diego, composed of Mrs. Annie Peck, Miss Lizzie Bourse, Miss Carrie Worster and Miss Rose Gleason, sang a selection so excellently as to be enthusiastically encored.

Mr. John Monteith, of San Diego, in an address upon the "Extravagances of American Speech," introduced into the convention the one gleam of humor that has thus far crept into the proceedings. One extract is as follows: "Our country contains but few venerable objects, but our language is the legacy of a thousand years—our mother tongue. Our great men are spoken of flippantly or disparagingly; our candidates for public offices have their names dragged through the mud before election and besmirched afterwards; our national legislative body is called the national bear pit—I think with good reason, sometimes—but can the despoiler not spare us one of our honored names to be still held up for popular reverence and veneration, and can we not spare our language. How our language has been misused recently. Take the word awful. I have heard a young lady speak of a minister as being "awful flip," of a magnificent sunset as being "a perfect daisy," and the sublime falls of Niagara were said to be "just too cute for anything." When in England I came across a little book on the "American Language," and as I read it my indignation rose. The writer had hunted out all the slang expressions in use in all sections of our country, with all the verbs constructed from nouns and nouns constructed from verbs. In the collection I remember seeing the word "excurse," derived from the noun excursion. There was also a collection of trivial epithets applied to sublime subjects, and great sounding words applied to trivial subjects. Worse than all this, these various horrors were represented as forming part of the regular colloquial tongue of Boston! Bostonians are afflicted with two diseases—culture and catarrh, but I never suspected them of this affliction also. When I afterwards traveled over my own country more I began to feel somewhat like the old deacon who possessed a spotless reputation until he ran for some office, when the papers proceeded to accuse him of many things. The deacon's good wife was very angry, so was the deacon, but from different reasons. The old fellow said to his wife one day: "Ah, Sallie, these things make you mad because you think them lies, but I feel bad because I know most of them are true." When I first read that Englishman's book I was like the deacon's wife, I thought it a slander, but when I came to travel more I found most of it true. I actually found that word "excurse," hoof, tail and horns, all complete, turned loose on the afflicted community seeking whom it might devour.

The nomination committee here reported the following: President, James G. Kennedy, of San Francisco; vice-presidents, D. C. Clark, Santa Cruz; Eugene DeBurn, San Diego; Mrs. A. L. Mann, San Francisco; W. W. Seaman, Los Angeles; secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Morrison, San Francisco; treasurer, Jas. H. Hamilton, San Francisco.

On motion these officers were elected by a rising vote.

D. C. Clark, principal of the Santa Cruz high school, read a paper on the "California Teachers' Reading Circle," explaining its aims and giving a history of the work accomplished. The convention then elected two counselors for the year.

Hon. Ira G. Hoitt reported for the incorporation committee that the California Educational Association was duly incorporated, with a capital stock of $250,000, divided into 50,000 shares of $5 each, and calling on the teachers to become stockholders in the association, which designs to erect a building in San Francisco containing a hall for conventions, a library, offices, etc. The by-laws of the association were circulated among the teachers after the session. Mr. Hoitt also reported for the decoration committee, stating that the prize for the best decorated school had not yet been awarded, and that many schools were purchasing flags and kept them flying above their doors.

This concluded the exercises for the afternoon. At the evening session Will S. Monroe, Superintendent of Schools of Pasadena, read an excellent paper on language teaching in the primary and grammar grades, and Dr. M. M. Bovard, president of the University of Southern California, delivered an address.

An attraction on the tables yesterday afternoon was a collection of clay models from the San Jose training school, executed by pupils ranging in age from seven to eleven years.

SIMPLY MARVELOUS!

SCARCELY eight months ago a medical discovery was placed upon the market bearing the title "THE GREAT SIERRA KIDNEY and LIVER CURE," and whose virtue was claimed to be the cure of kidney and liver complaints. ITS INTRODUCTION WAS THE SIGNAL FOR ONE OF THE GREATEST SUCCESSES ever achieved by a patent medicine on the Pacific Coast, as the afflicted quickly ascertained that it was far more efficacious and beneficial than had been claimed, as THE MOST WONDERFUL CURES WERE ACCOMPLISHED IN SUCH A BRIEF TIME as to seem MIRACULOUS. The testimony of hundreds who have been lifted from sickness and misery to health and happiness bears no uncertain sound, and they join in glowing testimonials of universal praise, hoping thereby to induce other unfortunates to drink of the font which restores that which is priceless—health. ONE TRIAL WILL CONVINCE THE MOST DESPAIRING THAT AT LAST A DISCOVERY HAS BEEN MADE which will restore a disorganized system and bring glowing health out of pale and sallow decline. One dollar per bottle. Six bottles for five dollars.

If you cannot go out to The Raymond and spend a day, a week, a month, or the whole season, then go out and stay a few hours. It is well worth your while to see the magnificent view from its piazzas; and that view alone will well repay you, although there are many other interesting features—especially the grand display of flowers in the hotel grounds, which are now under the charge of Mr. C. H. Hovey, the celebrated landscape gardener, formerly of Hovey's Nurseries, Cambridge, Mass. Tourists visiting Los Angeles should make a trip to The Raymond, even if their stay there must necessarily be brief. There are frequent trains between Los Angeles and The Raymond by several lines of railroad. The orchestra consists of four soloists, who render the choicest of music twice each day.
A very complete livery is connected with the hotel, and it is an excellent starting-point for a drive through the San Gabriel valley, in which are situated the San Gabriel Mission church, Rose's winery, Lucky Baldwin's stock farm, the Sierra Madre Villa, and many other places of interest.
Full particulars regarding board and other matters can be obtained by addressing C. H. Merrill, Manager of The Raymond, East Pasadena, California.

SUMMONS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE County of Los Angeles, State of California.

The Redondo Beach Company, plaintiff, vs. Oskar Huber and Chas. Mensch, defendants.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, and the complaint filed in said county of Los Angeles, in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court.

C. C. P. Section 407.

The People of the State of California send greeting to Oskar Huber and Chas. Mensch, defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff in the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days.

The said action is brought to obtain the judgment and decree of this Court that it fix a day within which defendants be required to pay to this plaintiff the said sum of twenty-four hundred and seventy dollars in U. S. gold coin, deferred payments as aforesaid, with interest thereon from the 12th day of April, 1888, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and costs of suit; and that in the event the defendant should fail to make such payment to plaintiff within the time so fixed by the Court that defendant and all persons claiming under him or her thereafter, that is, from the day last mentioned for the payment of said money, forever barred and foreclosed of all right, interest and estate in and to the land described in plaintiff's complaint, and said contract and every part thereof, and of all right to a conveyance thereof, and that from and after the day so fixed by said Court for the payment of said money, if the same be not so paid, plaintiff be fully restored to its former rights and estate in the land described in the complaint, and the rights and estate therein which it held before and at the time of the making of said contract, and that upon the failure of the defendant to make such payment within the time fixed by the Court as aforesaid, the title of plaintiff to the land described in the complaint as against defendant and all persons claiming under him, thereupon become good and valid and forever quieted, and that said defendant thereupon become forever barred and restrained from asserting any claim whatever to said land or to the moneys paid by defendant to plaintiff under said contract mentioned in plaintiff's complaint as "Exhibit A," or to any part or portion of said land; and for costs of this suit, and for such other or further order or relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable in the premises, as will more fully appear by reference to the complaint on file herein.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in plaintiff's complaint.

THE POLICE BOARD.

It Objects to the Action of the City Council.

The Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon, Mayor H. T. Hazard in the chair, and Messrs. Collins, Dexter, Knox and Lewis present.

Chief Glass reported that he had suspended Officer C. C. Connolly for drunkenness and neglect of duty, pending the action of the board. On motion of Mr. Lewis the Chief's action was confirmed, and Connolly was suspended for fifteen days. It was resolved as the sense of the board that in future the rule applying to drunkenness on the force shall be rigidly enforced, and the penalty of dismissal be applied. A permit to open a new saloon was granted H. Vittallini.

Officer Stevenson reported through the Chief that on Monday night last he had found a man named Louis Schuldheis, outside the saloon opposite the Plaza church, bleeding from a knife wound. From what the injured man told him of the affair, he was satisfied that the cutting was done in the saloon, but the bartender tried to deceive him about it. He afterwards found the man who did the cutting concealed in the rear of the saloon. The matter was referred to a committee, composed of Messrs. Dexter, Lewis and the Chief, for investigation.

License Collector Smith reported that the following saloon men had not paid their licenses: F. Adam, T. Forques, E Fleur, T. Froehlinger, Hollenbeck & Germain, H. Wiederman, and Wilke & Hartung, and that the saloons of J. H. Knief and Briestly & Cokler were closed.

On motion of Mr. Knox it was resolved to enforce the rule and revoke all the licenses, and the delinquents were notified that before their permits were issued again it would be necessary for them to put in new applications and pay their delinquent licenses.

James Spring, foreman of the West Lake park, and Fred H. Gridley, sexton of the Bellevue-avenue M. E. church, were appointed special officers.

A petition transmitted from the Council, signed by Justice H. C. Austin, the Superior Court judges, and other prominent citizens asking for the reinstatement of Mrs. Watson was read. Mr. Lewis said that he considered it as a petition which the board could not disregard, and on motion of Mr. Knox the board recommended to the Council that an ordinance be passed in accordance with the petition. Mr. Collins called for the roll call and voted negatively, stating that his reason for doing so was that he considered that Police Matron Gray was needed just as much as Mrs. Watson and that if one was reinstated the other ought also to be.

Chief Glass informed the board that he had arranged with Chief Strohm, of the fire department, to connect his office with the fire-alarm bell, and that to sound a general police alarm in case of riot, etc., the bell would tap twenty times.

He also reported that a man named Taylor had called on him and demanded that the patrol horses should be sent to his stable on Broadway; but as he had not yet received any official notification of any change, the Chief stated that he had refused to do so. Mr. Collins said that he thought the Council had no right to take this matter out of the hands of the board, and that the board ought to be able to remove the animals whenever they thought the animals were not being properly treated, and not be bound by contract for a year. Mr. Knox agreed with Mr. Collins, and the Mayor stated that the manner with which the Council had treated both this and the fire board had led him to enjoin the Council on every opportunity, and he would see into this matter.

Chief Glass said that in the matter of the vacancy made by the removal of Officer Rowan, he had offered the position of patrol driver at $50 per month to several of the eight men removed by the commission under the retrenchment ordinance, but none of them seemed to want it. Accordingly he had appointed Walter Myers temporarily and recommended him for appointment by the board. His action was approved on motion of Mr. Knox. Mr. Dexter said that although in favor of acting up to the resolution adopted at the time of the removals, he was also in favor of appointing a man in harmony with the Chief; but when the matter of filling the vacancy was brought up in earnest, he nominated J. D. Todd. Mr. Knox nominated O. Rohn, and at the request of the Chief also nominated W. Myers. Mayor Hazard wanted to let the matter lie over for a week, but Mr. Lewis wanted the matter disposed of at once. The nominations were then declared closed, and the roll-call resulted in the appointment of O. Rohn by 4 votes to 1, whereupon the board adjourned.

A Shooting Tournament.

Company A. 7th Infantry, N. G. C. will hold a shooting tournament on the 19th and 20th of April, to which all lovers of rifle shooting will be invited. The shooting grounds will be near the reservoir, reached by the Downey avenue and Kuhrts street cars. Military, German ring, American field and bulls-eye pool targets will be provided, while military and sporting rifles with ammunition will be on the range for those without them. The entrance fee for any of the matches to be shot will not exceed one dollar, while any rifle and any sights, barring telescope, may be used. It will be the first tournament of its kind ever held in Southern California, and it is expected it will be well attended not only by those interested in military matters, but by the public generally. Articles for prizes are being contributed by merchants and others of Los Angeles and promise to make a fine showing. The funds realized will go towards fitting up quarters in the armory now building on Broadway between Sixth and Seventh streets. Company A's shooting committee have the arrangements in hand.

The Castac Shooting.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon W. C. Chormicle and W. A. Gardiner, charged with the murder of G. W. Walton and Dolores Cook in the Castac cañon on the 28th ult., appeared before Justice Austin for preliminary examination. The first witness called was the complainant J. R. Olme, who was an eye witness of the whole affair. His story of the shooting was merely a repetition of that given at the Coroner's inquest, and he was soon turned over for cross-examination. He appeared to have a very limited knowledge of the English language, and he was slightly deaf. An effort was made to prove by him that Walton was the aggressor in the matter, and also that the witness himself was hostile to Chormicle, who had several times prior to the shooting warned him off his land. The court adjourned at 5:30 o'clock until this morning, when Olme's cross-examination will be resumed.

A LATE LINE FROM HAYES.

The Corrective Properties of the Juices of California's Vegetable Alteratives Almost Sensational.

A lady formerly of 1221 Mission St., but now of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes to the Edwin W. Joy Co. as follows: "Mrs. H. T. Beverly, of Seattle, resided with me last winter. She had long been a sufferer from dyspepsia and waterbrash. Her stomach was so weak that for months at a time she lived principally upon milk and the white of eggs. Among other things she tried one of the mineral sarsaparillas only to find that it gave her pains in the head and weak sinking spells. Having taken Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla myself with great benefit in stomach troubles, I induced her to discard the potash preparation and try your Vegetable compound. It began reinvigorating her stomach and in a short time helped her astonishingly. It improved her appetite and strength to that extent, that just before she left, she was beginning to return to solid food. She authorized me to write you this statement accordingly."

ASTHMA.

It is a common error to suppose every disease which is attended by oppressed breathing to be Asthma or Phthisic. We have shortness of breath in Consumption and Pneumonia, just as we do in Asthma, only that in these diseases it is always present, whereas in Asthma it occurs in paroxysms.

Asthma is a spasmodic disease of the lungs, which manifests itself in periodic attacks or "fits." It comes on suddenly and is attended with great difficulty of breathing while it lasts, but when the attack is over the patient breathes almost as well as in health.

Nervous, Humid and Dry Asthma are names given to different forms of this disease. Emphysema is an other and more inveterate kind of Asthma, while Hay Fever or Rose Cold is a peculiar variety of Asthma which occurs at a certain season of the year. Each of these forms of disease differs somewhat from the others in symptoms, but practically these distinctions are of very little value. It does not matter to the patient which form of Asthma he has, since his sufferings are the same in all. In one case the expectoration becomes yellow, and we call it bronchial. In another it is light and we call it dry. When he coughs up clear water, with a white froth on the surface, we say he has Humoral Asthma. In Nervous Asthma there is very little expectoration of any kind. Hay Fever always begins as a crying cold in the head or influenza, and a clear water runs from the nose and the eyes before the Asthma fit comes on. In Emphysema the expectoration is generally thick, and continues so in the interval between the fits, while the shortness of breath is increased on the slightest exertion.

It is a foolish conceit of many people to believe that if they have Asthma they cannot get Consumption. The truth is the very opposite. They are more liable to fall into Consumption because they have Asthma. Another idea is that Asthma itself is not a dangerous disease, and yet the published bills of mortality for this city prove to all who read them that great numbers lose their lives every year by this foul destroyer of our homes.

Without courage and perseverance nothing is curable. But with these aided by proper and skillful treatment, Asthma can be cured even after the lungs are extensively diseased.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance from business whatever. Every case of Asthma is curable. Eastern visitors and invalids will be wise in being cured before they return home.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally can write for list of questions and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address

ORANGE LANDS.

Maclay San Fernando Rancho

THE WATER SYSTEM

Has cost over $120,000 cash to January 1, 1890. All water is delivered along the streets in iron pressure pipes for irrigating and domestic purposes. Over 25 miles of mains and laterals are laid at a cash cost of over $73,000. The mains are from 6 inches to 24 inches in diameter. The water is from artesian wells and from the subterranean flow of Pacoima at the submerged dam. This dam is built of granite and Portland cement and cost $44,000 in cash. No seeds of weeds or germs of disease can ever enter the water pipes. The following letters show the land to be the best in Southern California for oranges.

E. Germain, President.

SAN FERNANDO LAND AND WATER CO.—In the interest of Los Angeles county, I take pleasure in stating that for several years past I have handled the San Fernando orange and lemon crops and have found no earlier, cleaner or sweeter oranges, or better lemons in the California market. They are absolutely clean, and free from any smut, dirt or discoloration whatever, and ripen earlier than any oranges or lemons in this section, and are fully up to the best Riverside fruit that I have ever seen.

GENTLEMEN—In the interests of San Fernando and those seeking orange lands I take pleasure in stating that I have been engaged in semi-tropic nursery and orchard raising for the past three years in this place, and I know of no place in Southern California superior to this locality for early, clean fruit of fine quality, and the growth of remarkably fine orange, lemon, lime trees, etc. All orchards and nurseries are free and absolutely clean from all insect pests, San Bernardino and San Diego county buyers show their appreciation of this place by quarantining against all other points in Los Angeles county except San Fernando. I am, gentlemen, respectfully yours,

JOHN BURR, District Inspector.

These lands are for sale in 10 to 40-acre tracts, with water rights, price $250 per acre and upward. Address R. M. WIDNEY,
